ABOUT THE WEBINAR

Modern time is characterized by an era of tension, anxiety, frustration owing to cut throat competition and increasing consumerism. The onset of Covid-19 also known as the global pandemic has had impeccable effects on the world. From employment to education, health, agriculture and just to mention a few have had a share of their effects. Any kind of challenging situation results in an increase of the level of anxiety due to increased pressure from home as well as the society to achieve higher in life. Changing dimensions have brought a rapid change in socio-economic scenario of human life. These short-comings infused isolation and feeling of insecurity, direct or indirect lack of reliable warmth, overprotection, lack of real guidance, disparaging attitude, injustice, discrimination, un-kept promise and so on. All this has led to stress, anxiety and unknown fear in the human mind.
